

Illinois Valley
Wild Blackberry Festival
Arts * Crafts * Food * Music
27th Annual Celebration

Sat. August 9th, 9am - 5:30pm and Sun, August 10th, 9am - 4pm.

The Wild Blackberry Festival is a two day community celebration located along both sides of the main thoroughfare of U.S. Highway 199 and includes Jubilee Park in downtown Cave Junction, Oregon. Historically the festival has featured more than 100 exhibitors, including food concessions, live bands, entertainment, children's activities, artist's demonstrations and displays, and of course homemade blackberry treats of every description. We welcome non-profit and community service organizations, and include limited booth spaces for imported/manufactured items.

AS IT IS USUALLY HOT THIS TIME OF YEAR, PLEASE COME PREPARED!!
